How to Obtain a DC Non-Drivers License ID

This flier contains information from the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV), Social Security Administration (SSA), and DC Vital Records on their policies for getting IDs. Bread for the City cannot provide financial assistance, 'referrals,' or vouchers for IDs, or ID cards.

To obtain an ID, you must apply in person at the DMV (call 202-737-4404 if you are unsure where the nearest DMV to you is). The DC DMV requires that you show proof of the following eligibility categories:

1. Proof of Identity (Select 1):

- United States birth certificate or birth certification card
- Valid REAL ID driver license, learner permit, or identification card
- Unexpired United States Passport or Passport Card
- Certificate of Naturalization
- Certificate of US Citizenship
- Consular Report of Birth Abroad (CRBA) issued by the US Department of State
- Letter with picture from Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency (CSOSA) or DC Department of Corrections (DC DOC) certifying name, date of birth, social security number and address (ID card will only be valid for 6 months if using this proof)

2. If you have an address, Proof of DC Residency (Select 2):

- Utility bill (water, gas, electric, oil, or cable), with name and address, issued within the last 60 days (disconnect notices/bills are not accepted)
- Telephone bill, reflecting applicant's name and current address, issued within the last 60 days (disconnect notices/bills are not accepted)
- Deed, mortgage, or settlement agreement reflecting applicant's name and property address issued within the last 60 days
- Unexpired lease or rental agreement with the name of the applicant listed as the lessee, permitted resident, or renter (may be a photocopy)
- Unexpired sublease accompanied by the original unexpired lease with the name of the certifier as sub-lessor
- DC property tax bill or tax assessment issued within the last 12 months reflecting the applicant's name and property address.
- Unexpired homeowner's or renter's insurance policy reflecting name and address.
- Official Mail— from ANY government agency (with full name and address)- include contents and envelope received within the last 60 days (Note: mail from DC DMV not accepted, change of Address Notifications from the Postal Service not accepted)
- Car/Personal Loan Statement (no coupon books/vouchers accepted) issued within the last 60 days reflecting name and address

How to Obtain a Replacement or First-Time Social Security Card

This flier contains information from the Social Security Administration (SSA) on their policies for getting Social Security Cards. Bread for the City cannot provide financial assistance, 'referrals,' or vouchers for ID documents.

How to Obtain a Replacement Card

Due to COVID, most appointments are being conducted by phone. To replace your SSN card, you can:

(1) Drop off or mail in your application to your local SSA Office. You must include the originals of the below proof of identity documents. Applications can be found at: <https://www.ssa.gov/forms/ss-5.pdf>. To locate the address for your local SSA Office, visit: <https://secure.ssa.gov/ICON/main.jsp> or call 1-800-772-1213.

*Note: SSA is open for original documents (proofs needed for a request for a Social Security Card or other application) drop off Monday - Friday 9am-4pm. Documents can be dropped off during these hours, but no one will be available to answer questions. Original documents will be returned via UPS Two-Day shipping.

(2) Set up a MySSA account at: <https://www.ssa.gov/myaccount/> and order a replacement card online.

Documents required:

1. Proof of US Citizenship (Select 1):

- Birth Certificate
- US Passport
- Certificate of Naturalization

2. Proof of age (Select 1):

- Birth certificate – strongly preferred
- U.S. hospital record of your birth (created at the time of birth)
- Religious record established before age five showing your age or date of birth
- Passport
- Final Adoption Decree (the adoption decree must show that the birth information was taken from the original birth certificate)

3. Proof of Identity (Select 1):

- US driver's license/non-driver's ID
- US passport

4. If you do not have an ID or passport, you can select 1 of the following (they must be current/not expired with your name, date of birth or age, and preferably a recent photograph):

- Employee or school ID card
- Health insurance card (not Medicare)

- U.S. military ID card
- Certificate of naturalization
- Certified copy of medical record (clinic, doctor, or hospital). Certified medical records must be printed within the last two years, show the applicant's name, birthday, biographical information, and be signed and dated by an acceptable medical source (for example, doctors or nurse practitioners). Electronic signatures are okay, but must have a stamp from the record source.

Note: If you are not a US Citizen, you will need to show additional documentation to show current, lawful, work-authorized status. See <https://www.ssa.gov/forms/ss-5.pdf> for additional information.

How to Obtain a First-Time Social Security Card

Individuals age 12+ requesting a first-time Social Security Card must call your local SSA Office to schedule an in-person appointment. To locate the phone number and address of your local SSA Office, visit: <https://secure.ssa.gov/ICON/main.jsp> or call 1-800-772-1213. During the phone call, the local office will conduct a screening, discuss documents to bring, and schedule the appointment.

How to Obtain a DC Birth Certificate

This flier contains information from the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV), Social Security Administration (SSA), and DC Vital Records on their policies for getting DC birth certificates. Bread for the City cannot provide financial assistance, 'referrals,' or vouchers for ID documents.

If you were born in DC, you can order your birth certificate from DC Vital Records by:

- (1) Making an appointment: call (202) 442-9303, Select Option 1, then Option 9
 - (2) Ordering by phone: call 1-877-572-6332, Select Option 2
 - (3) Ordering by mail: https://www.vitalchek.com/Fax-Phone/DC_Birth_Application.pdf
 - (4) Ordering on the internet: <https://dchealth.dc.gov/vital-records> (click the "Remote ordering service provider" section for all online ordering options)
- *allow 2-4 weeks for remote order processing time

Cost: $23 (additional costs apply for orders placed by phone, internet, or mail.)

-Note: For in-person requests, cash, checks, money orders, Visa and Master Card are accepted for payment. For mail-in requests, acceptable forms of payment are checks and money orders and should be made payable to the DC Treasurer.

DC Vital Records Division Office Location: 899 North Capitol St., NE

Note: In DC, a parent, sibling, or child may request a birth certificate for their relative as well - they would need to provide their own ID and birth certificate and pay the $23 fee.

You will need to verify your identity. If going in person to the service center, you will be required to complete an identity verification questionnaire at a self-service kiosk. It is recommended that you bring several forms of ID to ensure DCVRD employees are able to verify your identity.

Select 1 of the following documents:

- State-issued driver's license or non-driver's ID card
- Passport or passport card
- Permanent resident card
- Employment authorization card
- Department of State card
- Military ID Card
- Law enforcement ID (must also present DC Superior Court subpoena)

Assistance Paying for Identification Documents

DC ID Fee Waiver: The below groups qualify for a free DC non-driver's ID ($20 fee is waived). The individual must bring the following required proofs of eligibility.

1. Seniors (Age 65 and older): Must still show identity and residency proofs.
2. Returning Citizens: Letter with picture from Court Services and Offender Supervisor Agency (CSOSA) or DC Department of Corrections (DC DOC) certifying name, date of birth, social security number and address (for ID Card only) within 6 months of release date.
3. Homeless Residents: If you are living outside or in a shelter you may use the DHS Verification of Homelessness Voucher in order to have the fee waived and to serve as proof of residency (you must still provide proof of identity). This form can only be used to pay for an ID once every 8 years. If you need a replacement within the 8 year renewal cycle for a lost or stolen ID, you can still use the form for a proof of residency but you must pay $20.
